

Please inform us

The way our organisation and services are valued is important to us. If you have any complaint about our service level, please inform us as soon as possible. After receiving your complaint, we will contact you immediately. All complaints get registered and will be handled personally by our managing board. If together we can not reach a satisfactory solution, you can file your complaint via www.kifid.nl. This arrangement is only intended for private individuals. If desired you can turn to the civil court. All our services are subject to Dutch Law.
